The Hon'ble Grand Mufti of India, Sheikh Abubakr Ahmad, extended his prayers and greetings on Holy Ramadan!

"Ramadan, the Holy month of sacrifice and dedication, has arrived for humanity. I stand with prayers and wishes to all the believers on this blessed occasion." He urged the believers to take advantage of the days and nights of Ramadan with fasting, Salat, Adkars and virtuous deeds. He sought to the Almighty for all niceness and blessings, and accept everyone's acts of kindness. He also asked to capture the precious moments of the month and inspire them by faith, dedication, sincere deeds, charity and philanthropy. Engage the time in Qur'an recitations and self-purification; by providing food, Zakat and Sadaqa to the needy and do charity in private to one's own family members and co-living beings, all these will surely have their multiple rewards in Jannah; he said in his Ramadan message.
