The Hon'ble Grand Mufti of India, Sheikh Abubakr Ahmad, exchanged his Greetings and prayers on the special occasion of Eid-ul-Fitr.

Hon'ble Grand Mufti of India, Sheikh Abubakr Ahmad exchanged his Greetings and prayers on the special occasion of Eid-ul-Fitr. 'It is the occasion to celebrate the end of month-long fasting. Eid is a festival of giving, sharing, introspection, and rejoicing with families. Eid ul Fitr has a deep spiritual significance for all, as the occasion marks sharing happiness despite wealth, ethnicity, demography, caste, and colour', He said in his Eid Message.

Grand Mufti also extended that Eid-ul-Fitr is a realization of and redefinition of human existence with spiritual experiences and purification of mind and body. It projects selfless humanitarian virtues for the entire society.

He called on the believers to Celebrate Eid with all fellow beings and make everyone happy with love, peace, care, and co-existence and prayed that May the Almighty bless and grace all on this special day!
